

Rand Regulations of participation in Gdynia Design Days 2020

Gdynia Design Days as one of the prime values recognizes providing a friendly atmosphere to all recipients of events organized as part of the festival. We would like the web edition of the festival to not be different in this aspect from our previous activities. We will make every effort to ensure that everyone who participates in the festival feels safe. In order to avoid undesirable behavior, we ask everyone to read the regulations of the Gdynia Design Days 2020 festival which we have developed in online form.

§1

General information

1. These Rules and Regulations govern participation in events organized as part of Gdynia Design Days 2020 festival organized by the Pomeranian Science and Technology Park – Design Centre, budget unit of the Gdynia Municipality, with its registered office in Gdynia, Al. Zwycięstwa 96/98, PSTP Gdynia – Design Centre, further referred to as the Organizer.
2. Events organized by the Organizer are aimed at developing design, transformation and project management skills in the scope of contemporary forms of design.

§2

Rules of participation in events

1. Events organized as part of Gdynia Design Days 2020 are open to the public.
2. Events are addressed to everyone interested in the subject, including students, graduates, PhD students, freelancers and entrepreneurs.
3. Participants have to register before the event by filling the application form on www.gdyniadesigndays.eu and www.platform-gdynia-design-days.mn.co.
4. Following registration, the Participant shall receive a confirmation of being entered on the participant list or the reserve list – if the number of interested persons is greater than the number of available places.
5. Not later than a week ahead of the planned event, the Organizer shall ask persons entered on the list of Participants to confirm their attendance. Failure to obtain such confirmation may result in deleting the Participant from the list.
6. The Organizer reserves the right to reschedule the event without providing the grounds. Notification about changing the event date shall be sent by e-mail to the address provided by the Participant upon registration.
7. The Participant shall:

- behaving in a manner that respects the principles of so-called Netiquette, i.e. no banning of profanity, no spamming in event chat and sending links unrelated to the event and its topic, no provocation of other participants and quarrels, no abuse of punctuation and capital letters, no flooding, i.e. sending the same messages in a short time interval, a ban on expressing views on the grounds of racism, xenophobia or one that in any way attacks minority groups and offensive comments related to the subject of gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation, disability, appearance, race, religion and those that could offend other event participants, follow instructions given by the Organizer and security staff.
8. The Organizer reserves the right to eject from the event any Participant acting in a manner that:
- disrupts order and violates the generally approved rules of behaving in public spaces;
 - violates the principles of personal culture and disturbs other Participants of the event.
9. Participants shall transfer their copyrights, including the right to exercise derivative copyrights referred to in Articles 2 and 46 of the Copyright and Related Rights Act in all fields of use referred to in Article 50 of the 1994 Copyright and Related Rights Act, with respect to works created during the Events to the Organizer.
10. Participants acknowledge that copyrights to any and all modifications and adaptations (including the right to use and dispose of them) shall be the sole property of the Organizer in all fields of use referred to in Article 50 of the 1994 Copyright and Related Rights Act.
11. The Organizer shall have the right to retain works, working materials, 3D files, photographs and text files created during the Events, irrespective of the form in which they are recorded; their ownership title shall be transferred to the Organizer free of charge after the end of the events.
12. In the event of third parties approaching the Organizer with claims concerning violation of copyrights or personality rights of third parties related to works created in the course of events, the Participant shall bear all costs and pay compensation concerning the claims of such parties.
13. Without prejudice to Organizer's rights, the Participant may publicly refer to and present works created during the events without limitations concerning time or territory.

§3

Resignation

1. Following registration and payment of the fee, there is no possibility to resign from participating in the event.

2. Participants have the right to transfer their tickets to others, having informed the Organizer about it at e.chudecka@ppnt.gdynia.pl not later than a week before the planned event.

§4

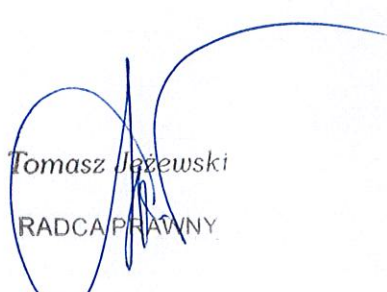

Liability and compensation

1. The Organizer does not insure participants of events and shall not be liable for any losses, such as the loss, defect or damage to equipment, clothes or other objects belonging to the Participant.
2. The Participant shall be liable for any losses incurred by the Organizer as a result of the Participant's negligence. In the event of detecting losses, the Organizer shall draw up the relevant documentation including a repair cost estimate – a copy of which shall be sent to the Participant's address – and perform the repair in line with said estimate. The Participant shall cover the full cost of removing the damages within 14 days from receipt of the debit note.

§5

Final provisions

1. The Organizer shall not be liable for force majeure events. Force majeure shall mean, in particular, weather conditions, failures or disruptions in electricity supply units.
2. These Rules and Regulations are published on the gdyniadesigndays.eu website.
3. These Rules and Regulations shall enter into force on June 1, 2020.

Tomasz Jęzewski
RADCA PRAWNY